

Eclogae

Publius Vergilius Maro (Virgil)

Eclogae

By Publius Vergilius Maro (Virgil) (70 BC-19 AD)

This book of poems, written between 42 - 39 BC, was a bestseller in ancient Rome, and still holds a fascination today. Held to be divinely inspired not only by the Romans themselves, but by the Medieval Catholic church, The Eclogues is one of the most beloved collections of Latin short poetry. (Summary by Caeristhiona)

This recording is done in the original Latin, in the form of a dramatic reading: in each eclogue, every character is read by a different LibriVox volunteer. Two eclogues are included twice – giving you a “Choice of Voice” !
